

ACCELERATE + CONNECT

Calling Asia's hottest entrepreneurs and startups!

AIA, Asia's pre-eminent life insurance company, and Nest, Hong Kong's leading investment incubator, are teaming up to create the next generation of digital healthcare.

If you have a startup idea in wearable tech or healthcare that has the potential to change the world, apply to join the AIA Accelerator Programme.

8 startups will be selected to enter this 12-week programme with the opportunity to engage in Asia's biggest challenge and financial opportunity.

Entries open until 1 February 2015. Terms and conditions apply.
